Outstanding Liabilities of States

1279. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether RBI has expressed serious concern over the long-term sustainability of Public Debt of the States during 1999-2000;

(b) whether the outstanding liability of the States by March, 2000 would be Rs. 409,258 crore, a 19.9 per cent rise over Rs. 341,259 crore by March end 1999;

(c) whether in terms of GDP, it is estimated to reach 20.5 percent during 1999-2000 as compared to 19.4 per cent in 1998-99; and

(d) if so, what are the reasons therefor and the details of the manner in which Government are going to tackle/share financial burden of States?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BALASAHEB VIKHE PATIL): (a) to (d) According to the RBI Report on

State Finances, A Study of budgets of 1999-2000, the debt—GDP ratio of the State governments is projected to increase to 20.5% at the end —March, 2000 as compared to 19.4% in 1998-99. At page S-44 of this Report the outstanding liability of the States is estimated to be Rs. 409,258 crores by March, 2000 which is 19.9% higher than Rs. 341,259 crore at March end 1999.

The Report brings out that the high rate of growth in the nominal stock of debt has translated itself into an accelerated growth of interest payments, putting pressure on resource base of the States. The Report brings out that the State would have to make efforts to contain non-plan revenue expenditure and augment revenue through broadening tax base and cost recovery.

State Governemnts are autonomous under the Constitution and take measures of their preference from time to time for improving their financial condition. Review of the finances of the Union and the States and suggesting ways and means by which the Governments collectively and severally may bring about a restructuring of the public finances so as to restore budgetary balance and maintain macroeconomic stability, is also within the terms of reference of the Eleventh Finance Commission which is currently in office.
